

My name is Ralph Peduto and I am a member of AFTRA and work in the field of on-air talent.

I would like to see more LPFM stations. These stations would help keep radio local.

The air waves belong to the people and are leased to the corporations. These corporations have an obligation to the public that they serve and that public should be served with equality. Keep the airwaves public and make the corporations respect their public.